

Enough already. Please stop taking our few freedoms remaining away from us. Corporate America is rich enough and does not need to limit our access to information. Congress and other governmental agencies need to spend their time, money and efforts toward protecting our freedoms and preventing terrorism. This issue does not address those needs.